

I am involved in a low power FM radio station in Richmond VA. This radio has become a real neighborhood voice. I could not be more impressed with the way in which this has allowed us to congeal as a community. I believe the translators are in competition of Low Power FM, but do not provide a voice to the local listener.